

SCHOOLS APPLICATION FOR ADMISSION THAT'S DESIGN! 2009

INTRO

At its third edition, That's Design! is the event which proposes an exhibition of the most important design schools worldwide and young emerging designers: a showcase offering the opportunity to present themselves through designs, products and creative ideas.

ADMISSION CRITERIA AND HOW TO APPLY

The projects to present - mock ups, prototypes or products are required, while drawings and renderings are not accepted on show - must be inspired to these 3 keywords: innovation, sustainability and interactivity.

The schools which are interested in participating in 2009 edition should complete the Application Form and attach three images of the projects that will be on show at TD!. Materials must be under 3 MB.

There is a LIMITED NUMBER OF PLACES AVAILABLE, the deadline to apply is FEBRUARY 13, 2009.

Once accepted, schools will be requested to present also a layout concept for the hired module, definitely consistent with the 3 keywords above mentioned. The layout will be approved by the TD! board.

That's Design! 2009 will be held in Zona Tortona in one of the most important and central venues of the design circuit.

Each school can hire from 1 to 2 modules of 18m² each. Price is 4.800 EURO per module.

Cost includes:

- _ VAT
- _ Communication services and coordination
- _ Common spaces lighting installation, plugs, sockets and wires for up to 1,5 Kw in each module. Specific lighting installation for each module should be organised and paid separately.
- _ Setting up tools (ladders, forklift, small scaffoldings)

REPEAT BOOKERS DISCOUNT

a 20% discount will be granted to schools applying for the 2nd time.

EARLY BIRD DISCOUNT

a 10% discount will be granted to schools applying not later than January 30, 2009.
